Nature of Counselling Work: I work in an integrative, or pluralistic way, with a person centred core approach. This puts you as the client in the centre of the process and I work with the mindset that you are the expert of your experience and your own process. I aim to encourage regular reviews and collaboration on how best to support you. The therapeutic approach can be challenging and some emotional discomfort is usual before improvement. Please feel free to discuss any concerns or comments with me.

Number of Sessions: The initial number of sessions can be agreed upon if you choose with the flexibility to adjust based on your needs.

Session Details: I currently work online and will send a link prior to sessions to the email address that you provide. This is likely to be Google Meet however other platforms may be used as required. Please ensure you have privacy and Wifi or mobile data connection and to join promptly in order to make full use of your session time. Sessions are 50 minutes and weekly unless otherwise arranged.

Fees and Payment Terms: Fees for individual therapy are £65 per session thereafter unless otherwise agreed in writing. Payment is due 48 hours in advance by bank transfer to the account details provided for Talk Therapy for Claire. Please discuss with me if there are any payment issues or financial difficulty in making payment.

Cancellation and Rescheduling Policy: The notice period required for cancellations, is 48 hours, otherwise session fee is payable in full before any further sessions may take place. I will aim to give a minimum 48 hours notice for any cancellation. Rescheduling may be possible on occasion where agreed in advance. Refund will be made if the therapist cancels or is unavailable at short notice after payment has been made.

Confidentiality: All session content is confidential unless you disclose a risk of significant harm to yourself or others. I have a legal and ethical obligation to disclose serious and critical risk of harm as well as some legal matters (e.g., court orders, terrorism, money laundering). I will aim to seek your permission before disclosing information that you share where possible. I work under the guidance of a supervising experienced and trained supervisor and some matters may be discussed with this supervisor, also confidentiality, in order to support you in the best way.

If a conflict of interest arises, that affects ethics or confidentiality then it may be necessary to end sessions and I will aim to discuss this with you.
